

Vick Kim

Vice President

Born in Burma, Vick Porter faced immense challenges, including being drawn into the army and fighting for survival. In 2011, he resettled in the U.S., where he overcame cultural barriers and personal struggles. As Vice President of MYA, Vick is dedicated to empowering the Burmese community, helping them find hope and build meaningful lives.