

Naw Kay Zin Win

Director of Volunteer Services

Born in Burma, Naw Kay Zin Win grew up seeing the daily hardships of the Burmese people, from limited access to food to a lack of educational opportunities. Inspired by her experiences with MYA's Mind Education program in Myanmar, she developed a passion for leadership and service. As Director of Volunteer Services, she focuses on organizing and guiding volunteers to make a lasting impact in the Burmese community.