

Mista Myah

Treasurer

As a young girl, Mista Myah faced challenges adjusting to a new home, including bullying and feelings of confusion in an unfamiliar environment. She often felt the need for more support and care during those formative years. Now, as Treasurer of MYA, she uses her experiences to contribute to a supportive and nurturing community, ensuring the organization's financial health serves its mission to empower others.