

Abel Myah

President

Born in Burma, Abel fled a military coup, endured hardship as a refugee, and faced bullying after resettling in the U.S. in 2007. Through MYA's Mind Education program, he transformed his life and now leads MYA, empowering the Burmese community to find hope and purpose.