

Khun Tyke

Director of Programs

Khun Tyke deeply understands the heart of the Burmese community and their struggles, including cultural barriers, language challenges, health issues, and social risks like addiction and violence. As Director of Programs, he leads MYA's efforts to empower the community and build a brighter, more hopeful future.